Testing Manager (Dave Templeton)

1926 Testing performed on May 12th. Grant Mosley (Tech), Glenn Slay (Extra), and Ian Ward (Extra). Next test is at Elks Lodge July 14th. Testing is still listed on ARRL, HamStudy, and WestVars.org

Equip Manager (Charlie McCrary)

1927 N4GMU has projector at his home and last report is that Guy has projector screen (need to verify actual location)

Net Manager (Bob Clarke)

1928 10M and 6M are doing well even with Lea family relocation

Old Business

1929 Rules Audit update;

after a ton of work by Dave Templeton, completing working on a form that an attorney will find acceptable still need to determine what a quorum is

Members under 18 are not allowed to vote on club matters

Will hopefully have documents completed by end of June/July

1936 QSO Party review- $50 was not spent on food

1938 Pre-field day event: Go to Huntoon Island to get some short term experience for about 4 hours. Motion made for club to spend up to $50.00 for event by AE4TG, W4MJF 2nds motion for June 2nd. Be wary of squirrels.

New Business

1940 Ken Peck (KN4LVV) joined club
Club has new P.O. Box 1293 Deland, 32721

1942 Field Day will occur June 23,24.
Looking for volunteers to stay up all night.
Decision still up in air whether inside or outside.
No desire to have official VE testing session.
No ARES attending
Antennas will be provided
Satellite contacts will be attempted
Food will be provided by attending members (group choice)

Closing

1949 Lea family attended HamVention and was peppered with a lot of questions about the Go boxes. Grace won a new radio – ICOM ID5100a and Val (AK4MM) won a ICOM 7300. Everyone attend HamVention at least once if possible.

1956 FT8 mode is getting active according to Reed (WW3A) and he received a QSO card from Japan with a SASE. Reed also reports in Florida QSO 2016, K1D has record for multi-operator low power.
